Instructor: _____
Course No. _____
Course Title: _____
Semester: _____

Please evaluate the course. (You might consider class readings, discussions, lectures, and activities; the intellectual challenge of the course; changes in your work over the semester; the value of what you learned.)

Obviously the activities were fantastic (Canada Trip) and the readings were well picked. However, sometimes class discussions dragged.

Please evaluate the instructor. (You might consider the instructor's preparation for class; interactions with students in class; quality of the instruction; feedback on your work; and availability outside class.)

The professor was fantastic. He was easy to associate with and a lot of fun.

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

It seemed like all the work was saved until the last few weeks of class.

Course Title: THE GREAT WHITE NORTH
Semester: FALL 06

Please evaluate the course. (You might consider class readings, discussions, lectures, and activities; the intellectual challenge of the course; changes in your work over the semester; the value of what you learned.)

This was my first English course in college, and I found it extremely interesting and informative. It was intellectually challenging and changed the way I thought about Canada, the United States and myself quite profoundly. Perhaps permanently.

Please evaluate the instructor. (You might consider the instructor's preparation for class; interactions with students in class; quality of the instruction; feedback on your work; and availability outside class.)

Professor Martin was by far the most ~~successful~~ accessible professor I have had here at UVM, both in and outside of class. He is also a very thorough (sp?) and knowledgeable instructor that always answered our questions, no matter how ridiculous they were.

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

I put my greatest amount of effort into this course, and tried my best to contribute to the discussion whenever I could.

Please evaluate the course. (You might consider class readings, discussions, lectures, and activities; the intellectual challenge of the course; changes in your work over the semester; the value of what you learned.)

The class was very informative and was great as an introductory college TAP course. It helped me adjust to the work load and was challenging but very interesting as well. The readings were very well chosen.

Paul Martin is a great teacher and advisor! He's really approachable and always kept the class moving toward meaning. Never biased or condescending. Great environment.

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

The class was very challenging and out of all my classes this semester I know I'll retain more knowledge from this one than the others. Lots of discussion.

I thought the class had a lot of information in it and Prof Martin was very helpful as an advisor also. He did a great job.

Please evaluate the instructor. (You might consider the instructor's preparation for class; interactions with students in class; quality of the instruction; feedback on your work; and availability outside class.)

He was an awesome teacher and knew SO much about the material. He always made it a fun and interesting class!

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

I think that we all worked hard on the weekly assignments, podcasts and ~~the~~ papers. We had really good assignments that helped us to learn the material.

I enjoyed all of the readings for this course. Everything that we did was educational and enjoyable. It was a great course.

Please evaluate the instructor. (You might consider the instructor's preparation for class; interactions with students in class; quality of the instruction; feedback on your work; and availability outside class.)

Paul Martin is a great instructor. He knows what he is talking about, he was usually prepared and very available outside of class.

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

I put a lot of work in to the class and I was committed to getting my work in on time.
