Instructor: Paul Martin
Course No. ENG 005
Course Title: From Pucks to Parliament
Semester: Fall 2009

Please evaluate the course. (You might consider class readings, discussions, lectures, and activities; the intellectual challenge of the course; changes in your work over the semester; the value of what you learned.)

I think the course was uniquely challenging. We didn't merely write several hard papers, instead we had to work with a variety of mediums which was enjoyable and challenging. The class readings were excellent and almost always relevant. The lectures and discussions were the most important part of the class, that is where I learned the most.

Please evaluate the instructor. (You might consider the instructor's preparation for class; interactions with students in class; quality of the instruction; feedback on your work; and availability outside class.)

I thought Professor Martin was great. He has a great positive and approachable personality he brings to class every week. He certainly is passionate about the subject and was great to work with. I think he got along with everyone really well.

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

I think my writing was fairly strong overall. I turned some assignments in late but that meant I ~~was~~ made sure they were well done. I participated well in most every class; I thought it was very interesting material.

Course Title: Canadian Studies

Semester: Fall 2009

Please evaluate the course. (You might consider class readings, discussions, lectures, and activities; the intellectual challenge of the course; changes in your work over the semester; the value of what you learned.)

~~After~~ ~~class~~ I consider this class to be my favorite of ~~all~~ ~~the~~ ~~fall~~ the fall semester. We read some great books such as Three Day Road by Joseph Boyden and The Truth about Stories. ~~When~~ I also learned lots of material in Canadian History. One of the high points in the class was the class trip to Ottawa. Overall I'm very happy with this course, it was challenging ~~but~~ and fun at the same time.

Please evaluate the instructor. (You might consider the instructor's preparation for class; interactions with students in class; quality of the instruction; feedback on your work; and availability outside class.)

Professor Martin is a very good teacher. He is available frequently for extra help and office hours. Although the class meets once a week, he makes you feel like you don't get ~~lost~~ lost with homework and other assignments. His teaching methods were excellent and I always ~~enjoyed~~ ~~enjoyed~~ his lectures.

Please evaluate the work you put into this course. (You might consider the quality of your written work; your contributions to group and class discussions; and your commitment to the course.)

I believe that I put forth my best efforts in this class. ~~Some~~ Some of the bigger assignments included Blog postings, podcasts, a midterm and our final project, ~~all~~ all of which I ~~did~~ ~~did~~ did to the best of my ability.
